An Historical Fact.—Every agent who has been steadily selling the improved $30 Homestead Sewing Machine for three years, owns his dwelling house, has a good account in bank, is clear of debt, and has money at interest, the natural consequence of securing a good agency for superior goods at the lowest prices.

A good first-class sewing machine, most useful—reliable at all times, easy to understand and control, the same size and does the same work as any machines that sell at four times the price. There is no machine at any price better, or that will do finer or more work, and certainly no one so low in price by many dollars. The Homestead is widely known and used in thousands of families in the Eastern and Middle States, and daily becoming popular in the West. It will save its cost several times over in one season, doing the work of the family, or will earn four or five dollars a day for any man or woman who sews for a living. It is the strongest machine made is ready at all times to do its work, makes the strongest and finest work ever invented, and is acknowledged as the Standard Family Machine. Price, complete for domestic use, $30, delivered at your door, no matter how remote you may reside. Business permanent and honorable, with more certain and rapid sales, and larger profits than any other. Extraordinary liberal offers made to local traveling agents where we have none established; or, if there is no agent near you, send your order direct to the factory. Address John H. Kendall & Co., 421 Broadway, New York. 2901q.

Malarial Regions.
 The inhabitants of malarial districts, who are constantly breathing an impure and poisoned atmosphere are subject to lingering and malignant and fatal diseases, such as ague, typhoid fever, and yellow fever and Asiatic cholera. Many sections of the western country almost every one is subject to chills and fever, an ailment most difficult to cure. The unhealthy effect of living in such malarial sections are destroyed by the free use of Dr. Haddell's Seven Seals or Golden Wonder. This standard remedy is unequalled for the prevention and cure of the class of diseases prevalent in low and marshy lands, and being a purely vegetable preparation, can be used in any quantity without danger to the system.

Are you going to the sea side, or are you there already? In either case procure some of Glass's Sulphur Soap. If you would increase the luxury of the bath, render your skin white and healthy and remove freckles or sun burn. Sold by all druggists.

Important Facts.
 "The boy that could not tell a lie," George W. Try one of Bostwick's five cent cigars.
 Coming! Coming! Look out for the coming of C. R. Hawley & Co., of Bay City. They will be here on the 10th of September, with a large stock of dry goods and notions which they propose to sell at such low prices that the natives will be astonished. Wait and save money.

The boss five cent cigar in the State of Michigan is what Bostwick sells.

We are pleased to inform the people generally that the popular firm of Folgers & Butterfield still sells groceries, provisions, boots, shoes, etc., at lower prices than any other house on the shore.

Smokers all say that Bostwick's five cent cigar is the "clear thing." Don't take any word for it, but just try one of his five cent cigars.

C. Alpena has opened a fresh fish market at his fish house on the dock, where he will keep constantly on hand fresh fish. Special attention given to supplying hotels and boarding houses. Fish delivered to any part of the city. 301.

If you wish to grow rich and handsome just smoke one of Bostwick's five cent cigars.

Still they come. Another general and well selected stock of the very latest styles of genteel furnishing goods just received at the store of J. Cohen, near the Post Office. Now is your time to buy good goods at low prices.

Remember that Bostwick sells a better cigar for five cents than you can get in town for ten.

On or about Sept. 10, the well known firm of C. R. Hawley & Co., of Bay City, will open a large stock of Dry Goods and Notions, in Store No. 1, Centennial Block. This firm buy and sell for cash. Buying of manufacturers in large quantities for cash, they are able to give their customers goods at prices paid by general dealers. Hold your money for the opening.

The true way to wealth. Smoke Bostwick's five cent cigars.

There was a meeting of the citizens at the Court Room last evening—object, water works. We go to press too early to give result.

Dr. G. Smith, dentist from St. Clair, is in town, and can be found at the Alpena House, where "aches" will be extracted on short notice.

The life saving station on Thunder Bay Island will have a full set of serf-men on Sept. 1st, and will continue thus till the 15th of December.

The sidewalk on Washington avenue, between First and Second streets, has been completed, and is quite an improvement to that portion of the city.

During Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of last week we were visited by very heavy rains, and the amount of water that fell was four inches on the level.

Dr. Wilson returned to town on Sunday, bringing his family, and is now enjoying the benefits of home comforts at the neat little cottage on Washington avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Quite a number of our mill men are beginning to complain of a lack of logs to keep the mills in operation, and before long some of those lumber manufacturing establishments will be silent for the season.

Harshaw & Co. have commenced the erection of a brick store on Second street, near Whitney's block. The building is to be 23x70 feet, two stories high, and will, when completed, be occupied by Harshaw & Co. as a hardware store.

Long Lake has become quite a noted place of resort, and large numbers of pleasure seekers find considerable sport in visiting that beautiful sheet of water, and there passing the time in fishing, sailing and hunting. They find ample accommodations at the Long Lake House.

The Red Ribbon Reform Club of this city dedicated their new Club rooms on Monday evening, at which time addresses were delivered by S. B. Bliss, of East Saginaw, and F. S. Condit, of this city. The meeting was very largely attended and unusual interest manifested in the temperance cause.

We understand that a large burnt tract of land has recently been discovered in Montmorency county, about fourteen miles from the Louden settlement, and twenty-four miles this side of Otsego Lake, and that parties are now looking up a chance to secure homesteads, with a view of going into the farming business.

The body of James Monaghan, the man who fell from the dredge jump on the 9th and was drowned, was found on Partridge Point on Sunday, and recognized by the clothing and name on his arm. An inquest was held by Justice McDonald, and a verdict of "accidental drowning" rendered. The deceased had a mother living at Wyandotte, Mich., was 22 years old, and a single man.

Last Thursday Chas. Oscar, the sheriff of Midland county, passed through this city en route for Rogers City, in search of one Ed. Parker, alias Chas. Martin, who was wanted at Midland for horse stealing. Parker was found in charge of the Presque Isle county sheriff, and when he saw that his chances were somewhat poor, he made a desperate attempt to escape, but was detected in time to frustrate his plans. He passed through this city in charge of the Midland sheriff, securely handcuffed. The officers from this city had a hand in the capture of the culprit.

The farmers in this county are now bringing to this market large quantities of choice winter wheat, the product of the harvest, which is being converted into flour at the Pioneer Mill. What a difference in the situation now and a few years ago. It is but a very short time since the number of farmers in Alpena county could be counted on the fingers of one hand, and every ounce of flour consumed by that small number was conveyed to this city from other portions of the State. Now that the valuable lands in our vicinity are finding enterprising men to till the soil, Alpena county is fast becoming self-maintaining in the way of raising produce, and the time is not far distant when there will be more produce raised in this section than can be consumed here, and will, of course, find a market at other ports.

Mr. Sellick furnishes us with the following list of vessels as having arrived or departed during the past week:

ARRIVALS.
 Schooners—A. Telegraph, Mary Collins, Galbreth, Mary Hattie, Emma A. Mayes, Seow—Uncle Sam.

Notice to Mariners.
 The following notice has been issued by the Light-house board: Notice is hereby given that, instead of the light heretofore exhibited on a cluster of piles at the mouth of Thunder Bay river, Lake Huron, Michigan, a fixed red light will, on and after August 18, 1897, be shown from an open frame tower, painted white, and standing on a crib on the north side of the mouth of the river.

A catadioptric apparatus of the six order, lighting 180 deg. of the horizon, has been substituted for the hand lantern formerly in use.

The focal plane is fifty-three feet above the level of the lake.

Lake Freights.
 The following charters of vessels for carrying lumber, etc., from Alpena to other ports, are reported:

Schooner New Hampshire, lath, Alpena to Sandusky, at 25c per m. on rail.

Schooner D. H. Keys, lumber, Alpena to Toledo, at $1.25 per m. on rail.

Schooner Mary Hattie, pine lumber, Alpena to Sandusky, at $1.25 per m. on rail.

Schooner Emma L. Mayes, lumber, Alpena to Chicago, at $1.12 1-2 per m. on rail.

Schooner Dolphin, cedar posts, Ossineke to Detroit, at $1.50 per cord.

Schooner Portland, lumber, Alpena to Chicago, at $1.12 1-2 per m. on rail.

Drowned.
 On Monday afternoon Samuel Bailey, an old resident of this city, was drowned in the river a short distance below Campbellville. It is not known how the accident occurred, as the first known of the mishap was the discovery of the pike pole used by Mr. Bailey in sorting logs in the river, floating down the stream to where a son of the deceased was at work, only a few rods below where the accident took place. The deceased was probably the oldest log driver in this section of the country, having followed that business for forty years, and, strange as it may seem, he was unable to swim, and had, during the many years he has followed the river, met with several very narrow escapes. As soon as the mishap was discovered search was immediately instituted and the body recovered yesterday morning. An inquest was held by Coroner Tims and a verdict of accidental drowning rendered.

It Would Not Work.
 A couple of gentlemen, accompanied by three ladies, determined to have the pleasure of sailing on the beautiful waters of Long Lake, last week. They did have the pleasure. They did more, for they sailed on the lake; they sailed in the lake, and did the diving business pretty thoroughly besides. It came about in this manner: The captain had the stick, Lon had charge amidships, and Oscar was stationed for'ad. Every man was at his post; the main-brace was spliced; everything was ship-shape, and no sign of danger was apparent.

At last there came the sound of a mighty wind. The gale came down on the gallant craft and she bent like a sapling to the breeze. Everything was let go at the run, and the watch called. But, alas! the gallant ship had received her death blow, and over into the dark, angry, storm-tossed, and no longer beautiful waters of Long Lake, plunged the gallant crew of the once noble ship.

Home, sweet home, would they ever see it again? Would their friends weep at the terrible news? Who would bear a last message to loved ones? Oh, Saginaw, beloved, fever and ague Saginaw! wilt thou mourn for one of thy sons and, like Rachel, refuse to be comforted? Shall I ever see thy dear site again?

The storm passed over; the heavens grew clearer; the sun shone out brightly, and the waters rippled joyously about the forlorn sailors, but it brought no joy to their anxious hearts. The shore! The shore! My kingdom for the shore!

The boat drifted sadly on the beautiful waters, a forlorn wreck. Its masts no longer proudly pointed towards the sky, but turned sorrowfully towards the little fishes in the lake. The poor, mistuned craft looked piteously at the struggling beings, and tears ran down its sides as it reflected on its treatment. Why was she used so unsailorlike? What crime had she committed? It is true that the best of friends must part, but then a little courtesy at parting was the gentlemanly thing, and they ought to apologize for their unceremonious departure. However she would return good for evil and they might cling to her sides for the present. She also advised them to keep on the top of the water, as the bottom was unhealthy and not adapted to the necessities of city people.

At this part of the adventure, the scene was very affecting. Lon had his arms around the three fair ones, and the attitude of the Saginaw gentleman was dramatic in the extreme. The party then went into the artistic business and kept on drawing until they had drawn the attention of Mr. Rensberry, who quickly came to their rescue. The party have decided that it will not work to sail a boat up side down.

STATE OF MICHIGAN.—Twenty-third Judicial Circuit—ss. Deeming it necessary, I do hereby fix and appoint a special Term of Circuit Court, for the county of Alpena, State of Michigan, to be held at the Court House, in Potter's block, in the City of Alpena, in said county, commencing on the sixteenth day of October, A. D. 1897, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

Dated at Alpena, August 13th, 1897.
 J. B. TUTTLE, Circuit Judge.
